1 THE COURT: Dr. Guelcher, just listen
2 to the question that's asked, and then counsel
3 will have an opportunity to ask you questions.

4 THE WITNESS: It's -- okay. I said
5 highly variable and it is variable, but I said I
6 prefer the word "predictable." Because it --

7 BY MR. ANIELAK:

8 Q. Just, sir --

9 THE COURT: Just -- no. If you would,
10 put a question to the witness.

11 MR. ANIELAK: Thank you.

12 BY MR. ANIELAK:

13 Q. The bottom line is that you don't have 14 data to correlate a specific complication to 15 degradation of the polypropylene material,
16 right? That's true?

17 A. I don't have those data, but I know
18 it's going to oxidize, and I know it's going to 19 get brittle and bad things can happen. I've not 20 measured that.

21 Q. Sir, you don't have data to correlate
22 a specific complication to degradation of the 23 material, right?

24 A. No, I don't have the data, but --
